"Innovative Substitute Staffing Solutions For a Better Classroom"

Criminal Records Release: I authorize EDUStaff, the ISD, and participating School Districts to secure a criminal history record from the appropriate law enforcement agency, consistent with current EDUStaff and school board policies and the State of Michigan regulations. I also authorize EDUStaff and the appropriate school district(s) to release information about my criminal history record information the school district(s) received concerning me to any employee of a non-public school or other school district to whom I choose for positional services. I understand this information is required in evaluating my suitability for employment consistent with Public Act 68 (1993) and Public Act 83 (1995). I fully release EDUStaff and chosen school districts to the maximum extent permitted by law from any liability whatsoever in connection with either the release or the use of the report obtained from the Michigan Department of State Police and the F.B.I.

Information Release: I understand that other information concerning my employment must be legally disclosed to a District, ISD, the State of Michigan, and other governmental entities. According to the social security number (SSN) privacy act (act 2004 PA 454.MCL 445.881et seq.,) no EDUStaff employee shall intentionally obtain, save, dispense or dispose of any individual's social security number. In connection with my employment with EDUStaff, I authorize the release of my personal information, criminal history background information, unprofessional conduct information, teaching certificate information, and any legitimately requested employment application or verification information requested by an ISD, a participating school district, the Department of Education, or other government entity.

Acceptable Use Policy: The use of contracted site technology is a privilege and not a right. Depending upon location, a school district/ISD may require the contracted employee to sign a site specific technology agreement policy. The district/ISD may deny, restrict, revoke or suspend specific user accounts at any time. The use of technology is intended for educational purposes only and is limited to job specific functions. Personal use of district/ISD technology is prohibited. Any account user must preserve the privacy and personal safety of the students. EDUStaff and the contracted site has the right, but not the obligation, to examine the content of users' documents or email or track websites visited by users. Any violation of the acceptable use policy will be subject to disciplinary action up to and including termination.

Certification & Truthfulness: I certify that the information I have provided with this application is accurate, complete, and truthful to the best of my knowledge. I acknowledge that any information found to be false, misrepresented, or not disclosed in connection with this application is grounds for denial of my application for employment, offer for employment, and potentially future termination of my employment. I authorize EDUStaff and its representatives the right to contact my previous employers, references, public agencies, and educational entities to verify the information I have provided with this application. I hereby waive any and all rights and claims I may have regarding EDUStaff for contacting, gathering, and using truthful and non-defamatory information, in a lawful manner, in connection with analyzing my employment credentials and other employment related eligibility.

Michigan Retirement:

If I retired from a Michigan Public School after July 1, 2010, I recognize that it is my responsibility to contact the Michigan Office of Retirement Services as it pertains to ORS "Core Services" rules that may affect my retirement benefits based on the Public Act 75 (2010).

APPLICANT ACKNOWLEDGEMENT & SIGNATURE:

By signing this applicant statement, I certify that I have read, acknowledge, and agree to all of my supplied application information and the applicant acknowledgements:

APPLICANT ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS:

Equal Opportunity Employer: It is the policy of EDUStaff to prohibit unlawful discrimination in its personnel practices. This includes all personnel practices, without regard to race, color, religion, sex, age, national origin, veteran status, disability, (or other) protected status or activity, according to applicable law. If an employee feels that he/she has been subjected to or witnessed any discrimination, he/she is to report this immediately to EDUStaff or a supervisor. Any complaint will be appropriately investigated. When a complaint is made, no retaliation shall occur for the good faith complaint. When it is found that an employee has violated this policy, appropriate action will be taken, up to and including termination. Michigan law requires that a person with a disability or handicap requiring accommodation for employment must notify EDUStaff, LLC within 182-days after the need is known (the 182-day limit on accommodation is pursuant to Michigan law but does not apply to federal law).

Offer of Employment: The completion of the application process, actions, and documentation does not constitute automatic employment with EDUStaff. I recognize that my interactions with EDUStaff during the group orientation meeting are part of the interview process and that EDUStaff may require additional interviewing and reference checks on top of any district required interviews and procedures prior to offers of employment. As there are several factors concerning employment offers within a "pooled dispatching" environment, I understand that there is no guarantee that my application for employment will be accepted.

Employment Relationship: I recognize that if an employment relationship is offered by EDUStaff, the employment relationship will be with EDUStaff, not the District or ISD. Furthermore, my employment relationship will be considered an "at will" employment relationship. This means there is no contractual relationship or promise made concerning my employment relationship beyond the specific relational definitions outlined in the EDUStaff Employee Policy Manual. Ultimately either I or EDUStaff can terminate the employment relationship with no cause and at any time.

District Approval & Removal: As listed on the first page of this application, I have selected district(s) and position(s) for potential placement. I recognize that each District has the final authority to grant or deny my access for placement within their district. Further, if I have been removed from a district, building, or program connected to previous employment or placement, these removals will remain intact and without question with an employment offer from EDUStaff.

Wages & Local Taxes: You may choose to receive payment of your wages by either direct electronic deposit or payroll debit card. If I have elected direct deposit, I authorize EDUStaff to initiate automatic deposits of my paycheck to my designated account(s) with my designated financial institution(s). I understand that funds will be available the morning of my assigned pay day, or the day following a banking holiday or closure. I further understand that a paycheck will not be mailed to me, but a copy of my check will be available on my EDUAccess website. I understand that EDUStaff is not responsible for any banking penalties or fees in the event of a direct deposit error based on either incorrect or incomplete information that I have provided or an error initiated by my financial institution. In the event of a payroll payment error, I authorize EDUStaff to make additional credits or withdrawals from my designated account equal to the specific payroll error. My selection of Direct Deposit will remain in effect throughout the duration of my EDUStaff employment until I initiate a direct deposit change or choose to receive my wages via payroll debit card. If I have elected to receive my wages via payroll debit card, I acknowledge that I have received and understand the cardholder fees associated with the payroll debit card. If I have elected tax withholdings for a local taxing municipality, I authorize EDUStaff to withhold my tax payment at the municipality residency rate. I further allow EDUStaff to pay this withholding upon my behalf as well as any earnings reporting required by the taxing municipality.

EDUStaff Policies & Procedures: As a part of the EDUStaff application process, I acknowledge the EDUStaff Employee Policies and Procedures Manual is available online and/or given to me personally at a Workshop. I also recognize that the Company reserves the right to change the policies and procedures set out therein. By initialing below I agree to become familiar with and abide by the policies and procedures of the manual. If there is anything I do not fully understand, I will initiate contact with EDUStaff for clarification.

Coaches' Code of Conduct: As part of the EDUStaff application process, I acknowledge that the Coaches Code of Conduct is available to me electronically in the EDUStaff Employee Policy Manual at www.edustaffonline.com. I agree to thoroughly read, become familiar with, and abide by the policies and procedures set forth in this manual. Furthermore, if there are any policies that I do not fully understand, I will initiate contact with an EDUStaff representative for clarification and assistance.

Form W-4 (2015)

Purpose. Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. Consider completing a new Form W-4 each year and when your personal or financial situation changes.

Exemption from withholding. If you are exempt, complete only lines 1, 2, 3, 4, and 7 and sign the form to validate it. Your exemption for 2015 expires February 16, 2016. See Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

Note. If another person can claim you as a dependent on his or her tax return, you cannot claim exemption from withholding if your income exceeds $1,050 and includes more than $350 of unearned income (for example, interest and dividends).

Exceptions. An employee may be able to claim exemption from withholding even if the employee is a dependent, if the employee:

- Is age 65 or older,
- Is blind, or
- Will claim adjustments to income; tax credits; or itemized deductions, on his or her tax return.

The exceptions do not apply to supplemental wages greater than $1,000,000.

Basic instructions. If you are not exempt, complete the Personal Allowances Worksheet below. The worksheets on page 2 further adjust your withholding allowances based on itemized deductions, certain credits, adjustments to income, or two-earners/multiple jobs situations.

Complete all worksheets that apply. However, you may claim fewer (or zero) allowances. For regular wages, withholding must be based on allowances you claimed and may not be a flat amount or percentage of wages.

Head of household. Generally, you can claim head of household filing status on your tax return only if you are unmarried and pay more than 50% of the costs of keeping up a home for yourself and your dependent(s) or other qualifying individuals. See Pub. 501, Exemptions, Standard Deduction, and Filing Information, for information.

Tax credits. You can take projected tax credits into account in figuring your allowable number of withholding allowances. Credits for child or dependent care expenses and the child tax credit may be claimed using the Personal Allowances Worksheet below. See Pub. 505 for information on converting your other credits into withholding allowances.

Nonwage income. If you have a large amount of nonwage income, such as interest or dividends, consider making estimated tax payments using Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals. Otherwise, you may owe additional tax. If you have pension or annuity income, see Pub. 505 to find out if you should adjust your withholding on Form W-4 or W-4P.

Two earners or multiple jobs. If you have a working spouse or more than one job, figure the total number of allowances you are entitled to claim on all jobs using worksheets from only one Form W-4. Your withholding usually will be most accurate when all allowances are claimed on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job and zero allowances are claimed on the others. See Pub. 505 for details.

Nonresident alien. If you are a nonresident alien, see Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens, before completing this form.

Check your withholding. After your Form W-4 takes effect, use Pub. 505 to see how the amount you are having withheld compares to your projected total tax for 2015. See Pub. 505, especially if your earnings exceed $130,000 (Single) or $180,000 (Married).

Future developments. Information about any future developments affecting Form W-4 (such as legislation enacted after we release it) will be posted at www.irs.gov/w4.

Privacy Act and Paperwork Reduction Act Notice. We ask for the information on this form to carry out the Internal Revenue laws of the United States. Internal Revenue Code sections 3402(f)(2) and 6109 and their regulations require you to provide this information; your employer uses it to determine your federal income tax withholding. Failure to provide a properly completed form will result in your being treated as a single person who claims no withholding allowances; providing fraudulent information may subject you to penalties. Routine uses of this information include giving it to the Department of Justice for civil and criminal litigation; to cities, states, the District of Columbia, and U.S. commonwealths and possessions for use in administering their tax laws; and to the Department of Health and Human Services for use in the National Directory of New Hires. We may also disclose this information to other countries under a tax treaty, to federal and state agencies to enforce federal nontax criminal laws, or to federal law enforcement and intelligence agencies to combat terrorism.

You are not required to provide the information requested on a form that is subject to the Paperwork Reduction Act unless the form displays a valid OMB control number. Books or records relating to a form or its instructions must be retained as long as their contents may become material in the administration of any Internal Revenue law. Generally, tax returns and return information are confidential, as required by Code section 6103.

The average time and expenses required to complete and file this form will vary depending on individual circumstances. For estimated averages, see the instructions for your income tax return.

If you have suggestions for making this form simpler, we would be happy to hear from you. See the instructions for your income tax return.

INSTRUCTIONS TO EMPLOYEE

You must submit a Michigan withholding exemption certificate (form MI-W4) to your employer on or before the date that employment begins. If you fail or refuse to submit this certificate, your employer must withhold tax from your compensation without allowance for any exemptions. Your employer is required to notify the Michigan Department of Treasury if you have claimed 10 or more personal and dependent exemptions or claimed a status which exempts you from withholding.

You MUST file a new MI-W4 within 10 days if your residency status changes or if your exemptions decrease because: a) your spouse, for whom you have been claiming an exemption, is divorced or legally separated from you or claims his/her own exemption(s) on a separate certificate, or b) a dependent must be dropped for federal purposes.

Line 5: If you check "Yes," enter your date of hire (mo/day/year).

Line 6: Personal and dependent exemptions. The total number of exemptions you claim on the MI-W4 may not exceed the number of exemptions you are entitled to claim when you file your Michigan individual income tax return.

If you are married and you and your spouse are both employed, you both may not claim the same exemptions with each of your employers.

If you hold more than one job, you may not claim the same exemptions with more than one employer. If you claim the same exemptions at more than one job, your tax will be under withheld.

Line 7: You may designate additional withholding if you expect to owe more than the amount withheld.

Line 8: You may claim exemption from Michigan income tax withholding ONLY if you do not anticipate a Michigan income tax liability for the current year because all of the following exist: a) your employment is less than full time, b) your personal and dependent exemption allowance exceeds your annual compensation, c) you claimed exemption from federal withholding, d) you did not incur a Michigan income tax liability for the previous year. You may also claim exemption if your permanent home (domicile) is located in a Renaissance Zone. Members of flow-through entities may not claim exemption from nonresident flow-through withholding. For more information on Renaissance Zones call the Michigan Tele-Help System, 1-800-827-4000. Full-time students that do not satisfy all of the above requirements cannot claim exempt status.
